RECORD CROWDS

CANDIDATE COX FAILS TO APPEAR BUT BIG THRONGS ATTEND SHOW ANYWAY

With a record-breaking crowd in attendance, the second and third days of the show found hundreds of paid admissions entering the park prior to 9 o'clock and by 11 o'clock waiting lines of several hundred were at the ticket booth. By afternoon each day more than 5000 people were present, according to estimates made by the management.

In anticipation of Governor Cox's speech, which was called off at the last moment Tuesday, the Tractor Show ran up the "Stars and Stripes" on a fifty-foot flagpole, shortly before noon. At 1 o'clock, Pimetti's twenty-five piece band opened its regular afternoon concert and the big show was alive with enthusiasm, all to no avail insofar as the Democratic candidate was concerned, however.

"Buying Crowd Attends"

It is a "buying" crowd that is in attendance at this first big Western event of its kind and a large number of sales are reported. Dealers are more than pleased with the results already obtained and demonstrations of practically every line—with exhibits complete—are in progress.

As Manager Guy H. Hall puts it, "The exhibitors are getting what they want! The visitors are pleased with the offerings! And the crowd's here, so the show is a success!"

There are forty-four tractors in the show, which is five more than were at the Minnesota State Fair at St. Paul, where a farm implement show was held most recently. Which, comparatively speaking, shows the magnitude of the local affair on a national scale.

Indeed, the crowds on the first three days have surprised the show management and from all indications, the three final days will find larger representations from practically every community in the West present for at least part of a day.

Tomorrow Glendale Day

Thursday will be Glendale Day at the Tractor Show and merchants are arranging to close up the stores and offices tomorrow afternoon in order that the local people may see the great displays.

Each evening the American Legion band plays at Broadway and Brand Boulevard, giving their initial concert last night.

The Bureau of Information is being maintained at the Pacific Electric station by the Tuesday Afternoon Club's committee. Few of the visitors are requiring accommodations in Glendale homes inasmuch as they are stopping in Los Angeles.

Hundreds of motorists are passing through the city to the Tractor Show hourly and Glendale is obtaining much favorable publicity.

After a slight lull in building for a few days, activities were resumed yesterday with a total of $23,325, covering ten permits. The record is as follows:

They are proudly displaying them and invite all who appreciate beauty and efficiency in an automobile to see the new 1921 Buick which is on display at their showrooms, 237 South Brand.

TRAFFIC LAWS

VIOLATIONS INCREASE, LIKEWISE ACCIDENTS FATAL TO PROPERTY AND PERSON

There were 25 cases for violations of the traffic ordinance disposed of in Judge Lowe's court Monday, about the usual number. Yesterday there were three auto collisions at the crossings of two of the widest streets in the city, Brand boulevard and Glendale avenue, where the approach of machines from all directions can be seen in ample time to prevent a mix-up if the driver is watching where he is going. In Los Angeles, Saturday and Sunday, there were more traffic accidents than in any previous two days in the city's history, 20 of which resulted in injury to persons and 168 to machines, besides a number that caused damage to bicycles, motorcycles, street cars and horse-drawn vehicles; and in the first 20 days of September there were 1054 auto accidents, 248 of them resulting in injuries to persons and 9 of them proving fatal. The authorities of the big city are seriously alarmed over the appalling increase in accidents, especially when so many of them prove fatal and are considering what steps can be taken to check them. The same problem presents itself in Glendale and other smaller cities, though the death toll is not as large in proportion.

REPUBLICANS MEET

HON. GOODHUE WELLS DELIVERS ADDRESS ON NATIONAL ISSUES

There was a very good attendance at the Republican meeting in the High School auditorium last evening considering the many other attractions in the city. O. E. Von Oven led a very spirited community sing, which served to put everybody in tune for a lively meeting. Hon. Goodhue Wells was the speaker and he held the interested attention of his audience to the very close. After first demolishing some of Gov. Cox's arguments to the satisfaction of his hearers, he launched into a discussion of national issues, notably the League of Nations and the tariff. He set forth very clearly the Republican position on these two leading questions of the campaign. He was liberally applauded throughout.

Committees and an executive board were appointed at this meeting also. The Registration Committee consists of Judge F. H. Lowe, chairman, Wm. Baker and C. C. Stevenson. The Publicity Committee is A. T. Cowan, chairman, Mrs. John Robert White, Miss Cora Hickman. The Financial Committee is W. E. Hewitt, chairman, Mrs. Mabel Tight, David Gregg, Albert Pearce and J. G. Huntley. Thirty-one vice-presidents were appointed and an Executive Committee of 15 members.

Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward was suggested as an appointee for deputy registrar of voters, her headquarters to be at Judge Harry Miller's office, 114 East Broadway.

Great Pianiste Coming

Olga Steeb, celebrated pianiste, who will be heard in joint comparison recital with the Knabe Ampico Reproducing Piano at Glendale High School under the auspices of the Fitzgerald Music Company of Los Angeles, has been recognized as a genius since she was a small child.

Like most of the really great pianists, the art of musical interpretation and the playing of difficult piano compositions was asserted very early and seemed to be instinctive with the child.

It was the noted Paderewski who said of her once, "If she goes to Europe for observation and experience she will one day teach us all how to play."

Olga Steeb acted upon that suggestion and spent many years in study and successful concert work in the capitals of Europe. Her tutors were among the greatest of both hemispheres, and she proved herself an apt pupil.

At that time the critic of the San Francisco Bulletin predicted that ten years hence Olga Steeb would be among the world's greater pianists. That prediction has since proved to have been prophetic indeed, for today the name of Olga Steeb is known the world over, and she is honored everywhere for her profound musicianship.

Complimentary tickets for this recital are obtainable only from the Glendale High School and Fitzgerald Music Co., 737-739 South Hill Street, Los Angeles.

HURRICANE HITS SOUTH

LOUISIANA AND MISSISSIPPI TRANSPORTATION LINES TIED UP; TEXAS PREPARES FOR STORM

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 22.—Transportation and communication lines along the Louisiana and Mississippi coast were tied up today following a wind storm which struck the coast at midnight and swept inland between Mobile and New Orleans. The wind reached a velocity of 48 miles per hour. Many lines being down, little information regarding property damage had been gathered. One casualty and considerable property damage was reported here.

Fearing a repetition of the 1915 storm, residents of outlying districts flocked to the business district and sought shelter.

GALVESTON, Tex., Sept. 22.—The Texas coast was awaiting the hurricane reported approaching today, although latest reports said the storm might veer eastward and evade the Texas coast. All preparations to meet the storm have been made, with residents of danger zones removed to places of safety.

LOWER PRICES TO FOLLOW FORD ACTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 22.—Slashing of prices of second hand automobiles was begun by dealers here today following reductions in Ford automobiles announced yesterday. At the same time, dealers predicted that the cut in prices would have a far reaching effect on the automobile market, including cheaper and better grade new automobiles.

LEAGUE PRESIDENTS TESTIFY IN PROBE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—The Cook county grand jury today resumed its investigation of alleged baseball gambling. The investigation was to include last year's world series and alleged "fixed games" this year. Both President Johnson of the American League, and Heydler of the National League, have been summoned to testify. Owners of the Cubs and White Sox, and some players were called.

COMPROMISE WITH RAISIN GROWERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 22.—The federal government's anti-trust action against the California Associated Raisin Co. of Fresno was expected to be compromised today, with the government agreeing to withdraw its application for temporary injunction proceedings, while the company was to agree to stop its alleged illegal practices in marketing raisins. Federal Judge Bledsoe yesterday continued the case until this afternoon.

The compromise will be affected to prevent a crop loss, attorneys said. The suit to compel dissolution of the raisin growers' organization was expected to be heard later.

ONLY 9 DAYS LEFT IN WHICH TO ATTEND TO THIS IMPORTANT DUTY

It is highly important that every voter be registered for the coming presidential election, which is only a little more than a month away now. All must register within the next 9 days if they have not already done so, or if they have done so yet have moved within the last 30 days from one precinct to another.

The deputy registrars are Mrs. C. H. Bott, Glendale Book Store, 113 S. Brand, phone Glendale 219; Mrs. May Myton, 104 S. Glendale Ave., phone Glendale 226; Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward, 114 E. Broadway, in Judge Harry M. Miller's office, Glendale 535.

If you just cannot come to any of these places, phone any one of the ladies named to this effect and some one will be sent to your home to register you.

Many Adopt Uniforms

The girl students of G. U. H. S. have adopted the uniform that is being worn by students of the South Pasadena High School, Polytechnic in Los Angeles, and many of the High Schools throughout Southern California. It is not compulsory that the uniform be worn the first half of the year, as many students had already provided themselves with school clothes, and in that case, the point of the uniform, partly economy, would be missed, by discarding good garments for the regular uniform. There are many virtues in the plan of the uniform, as it does away with all possible embarrassment sometimes suffered by students of very moderate means, when they are thrown in contact with girls who dress extravagantly. The neat blouses and trim navy skirts are very becoming and suitable for girls of school age. More than three-fourths of the girls are already wearing them.

REBEKAHS MEET

AFTER REGULAR SESSION, PROGRAM IS GIVEN, STATE OFFICER SPEAKS

Carnation Rebekah Lodge of Glendale held a meeting last night, after which the public was admitted to the rooms, and a program rendered by Glendale artists. The numbers were:

Piano solo, Miss Champlain; vocal solo, Miss Marion Addison; violin solo, Miss Linkogel; dance, Miss Thomas, accompanied by Miss Linkogel.

During the intermission which followed, an auction sale was held of useful and dainty household articles, donated by the members of the Lodge. Three cakes were sold, which went high, bringing ten dollars. Over fifty dollars was cleared by the sale, which amount will go for the support of the Orphans' Home of the Odd Fellows at Gilroy. This institution is supported by the Rebekahs of California.

C. E. Longley, Past Grand Master, of Los Angeles, then gave an address, telling of the work of the Home, showing the good it has accomplished, and spoke of the need of new buildings, on account of the very congested condition of the present one. Already $150,000 has been raised on the building fund, by the work of the Rebekahs of the state.

The program closed with other numbers by Misses Linkogel and Thomas. All the selections given were highly enjoyed.

Tomorrow is Glendale's Day at the National Tractor and Implement Show. It is expected that the record attendance of the week will be scored. Local business men are importuned to close their stores and offices during the afternoon in order that they and their employes will be enabled to visit Verdugo Woodlands and see for themselves this splendid agricultural machinery exhibit brought to Glendale.

All who have been seen so far have willingly agreed to close from 2 o'clock on. At a little after that hour the High School and grammar schools will be dismissed and the offices in the City Hall will all be closed.

Through the advertising columns of today's paper, the management of the Tractor Show officially invites all of Glendale to attend!

HONOR NEIGHBOR

FRIENDS OF JOSE FELIX AND WIFE SURPRISE THEM IN NEW HOME

While Jose Felix, the expert pressman of the Evening News office, was doing some extra work at the plant last evening he received a telephone message urging him to come home at once. With visions of one of the boys badly hurt or suddenly taken ill he hastened to the house, only to confront a party of 24 or more neighbors awaiting him. They had come in to help dedicate the new home recently acquired at 218 East Lomita and to do honor to a quiet, peaceable, hard-working young man and his family who had been good neighbors to most of those present when living for several years at 214 South Louise. They brought as a gift to Mr. and Mrs. Felix a beautifully bound copy of a biography of Rev. J. W. T. McNeil and some of his notable sermons, which book was compiled by Miss Mary Carr Merritt of 210 S. Louise. The names of those present on this happy occasion were written in the back fly leaf of the book. They were as follows: Mrs. M. A. Perkins, R. P. Jodon, wife and Dorothy, Mrs. T. C. Stem, Mrs. M. Zudie Young, Mrs. H. M. Leeke, Ida Ward, Tillie Leeke, Miss Mary Carr Merritt, J. Dorsey Mottern, O. A. Lane, wife and son John, Mrs. S. J. Lane, H. H. Fraser, Gertrude Gibbs, Mrs. J. G. Cross, Mrs. Fannie O. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. King, Genevieve King.

Examine Rail Men

William Nichols, chairman of the board of examiners of the Southern Pacific Railroad is in Los Angeles with his car examining the men of this division. His wife and daughter, Harriet, of the Monte Vista apartments, Glendale, entertained a party of friends and relatives of the two cities in his car last Friday night. Mr. Nichols explained the workings of his car and the remainder of the evening was spent in listening to music.

Mrs. W. M. Kimball, 339 West Lexington Drive, has returned from a two weeks' visit to Catalina.

SHOW SIDELIGHTS

OVER 600 TRACTOR AND IMPLEMENT DEALERS DINE AT ALEXANDRIA TONIGHT

Tonight at Hotel Alexandria, Los Angeles, the Southern California Tractor and Implement Dealers' Association will banquet and recount the success of the big National Show which they are sponsoring in Glendale's Verdugo Woodlands this week.

Covers will be laid for 600 members and visiting manufacturers who are gathered here. It is the yearly meeting of the association and following the banquet, several of the guests will be called upon for speeches, after which toasts will be in order. Following the program, officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

It is expected that this jollification will sparkle with reports of the big business which is being done by the dealers at the show and general commendation of the successful management, delightful location and large attendance.

The dining hall and concessions at the Tractor Show are under the management of Sam Robinson and J. M. Gratz, well-known Los Angeles cigar store operators.

Nearly one thousand persons are served at the noon hour, Mr. Robinson reports, while "hot dog," and soft drinks are food for thousands more attending the show.

A mustard shortage was reported yesterday by the sandwich purveyors, but there was plenty of "hot stuff" on hand today to satisfy.

"Here's where we all hit the 'sawdust trail,'" sallied Guy H. Hall, manager of the show, as the writer accompanied him through the long lanes of machinery exhibits. A thick layer of shavings over the ground makes walking around the woodlands satisfactory. Sprinkling lays the dust and the sawdust prevents mud forming under foot.

Early birds these ranchers are. They get out to the grounds before 9 o'clock to inspect the various makes of tractors and before nightfall most have come to a decision as to which machine best suits their individual needs.

Due to the large number of sales being made and demand for the display of additional models of machines, many of the exhibitors are increasing their space which demonstrates clearly the success of the show.

Women's Society Meets

An all-day meeting of the Women's Society of the Glendale Presbyterian church convened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. There were about 60 ladies present. The morning was spent in sewing. At noon, Mrs. Geo. D. McDill, with ten assistants, served a hot lunch to about 85 or 90.

The Missionary Society met in the afternoon. This meeting included reports of various departments of women's work, and plans for the future. Mrs. J. J. Penfield, former president of the society, who recently returned from England, where she spent nine months, gave an exceedingly interesting and instructive talk on the impressions she received during her trip abroad. The meeting closed with prayer led by Mrs. Field.

PLACE DESIRABLE

ANDREWS RANCH CHANGES HANDS FOUR TIMES IN LESS THAN YEAR

When Harry Hooper came out to Glendale from Washington, D. C., last December he bought John Andrews' two-acre orange ranch and fruit stand at 1439 East Colorado and moved in, with his wife and two children. He was a house decorator by trade and soon grew tired of the new life, traded the place to a Mr. Bennett for Hollywood property and is now working at his trade. Bennett recently sold the property to Geo. W. Mischler, a Hollywood building contractor, who is now living there, in the packing house, which was fitted up as a residence. Mr. Mischler intends to start a fine residence on the place in about two weeks, as soon as he finishes his work in Hollywood. One of Mr. Mischler's carpenters is C. W. Gainsbeck, who, a few weeks ago, bought Sylvester Hendrix's little grocery store at 1306 East Broadway and moved into the living rooms in the rear with his mother. He expects to buy a lot soon and build.

POOLROOM PROBLEM

A. G. LINDLEY GIVES VIEWS AS PRESIDENT FEDERATED BROTHERHOOD

Editor Glendale Evening News:

As President of the Federated Brotherhood of Glendale, which includes in its membership all of the men of all the Protestant churches of Glendale, as well as many other men who are not in any church but who are exemplary citizens and stand for the principles of the organization as suggested by its slogan, "A clean city, kept clean," I am representing over one thousand of the highest type of men in our splendid city.

We are unalterably opposed to permitting any kind of an institution in Glendale that will tend to lower our standards morally, and make it a less desirable place in which to live and bring up our families.

The "pool room" has been outlawed in this community for the past ten years, and so far from being a detriment to the desirability and growth of the town those so-called "bewhiskered" ideas have caused our little city to increase in population almost 400 per cent, which is a greater percentage of increase than was made in the same period by any other city in the entire state—if not in the Nation. Is not that a convincing argument in favor of keeping out such "cesspools" of iniquity?

Even the saloons some years ago divorced the "pool hall" as being too bad for them to associate themselves with any longer.

Now, while we oppose the permitting of such plans to be operated in this town for private gain, we do favor the establishment immediately of a "Community Center" where the young people and others can find wholesome amusement and entertainment, but to be operated by the city and in charge of an efficient Recreational Director to be selected for his ability and fitness for the position.

This community center to include, among other things, a large assembly hall suitable for all public gatherings, and equipped for moving pictures; some smaller lecture rooms; nursery and rest room, where small children can be cared for while the mothers enjoy a little of the various forms of recreation provided; an indoor plunge with showers and locker rooms; bowling alleys, pool and billiard tables; reading rooms, game rooms; outdoor game courts for tennis, basketball, croquet, etc.

What more fitting "memorial" could be erected in honor of our splendid young men who went "over there" and helped to save the world from despotism?

This need for our city has been neglected for too long already, but let us not take hasty action now in the wrong direction and foist upon this community something that will be a disgrace and a detriment in every sense, but why not petition our "Ctiy Fathers" to take the necessary steps to provide what will meet the need in a manner that will be so acceptable that it will be an attraction to our already desirable little city and will help to increase our growth, instead of something that would not only prevent many from locating here but would cause many already here to sell out and leave for the welfare of their children and homes.

Yours for "a clean city kept clean,"

ARTHUR G. LINDLEY,
Pres. Federated Brotherhood.

Ministers Act

The Glendale Ministerial Association in its meeting Monday, in approving the action of a special meeting held a week ago, passed unanimously the following resolution respecting the pool hall and amusement situation in our city which has been brought to a focus in the petition asking for a repeal of the ordinance which has been in force in Glendale for many years.

The action taken was as follows: That the Glendale Ministerial Association composed of the active ministers of our Protestant churches affirms its full approval of the present ordinance controlling pool halls and similar places. That we pledge hearty co-operation with any movement looking toward the establishment of a civic amusement center which shall include a first-class swimming pool, baseball and tennis grounds and such games for our youth, and provided that such center shall be under proper supervision and shall be closed on Sundays.

A Daily Prayer-Creed

O Lord, grant that today I may be kind
To those around me; that I may be blind
To their faults and failures. Help me to praise
Each honest endeavor, and through would stray;
Hard tasks to smile. O Lord, help me to speak
A cheery word to all the faint and weak,
To speak a word of comfort to the sad;
And when the day is done may hearts be glad
Because I have been serving thee.
O Lord, grant that today I may be brave
Against each temptation; that thou wilt save
Me from sin. O Lord, help me to be
All that thou wouldst have me be. Speak to me
And gently lead me back unto thy the day's
When from the path of right my feet way,
Teach me. O Lord, upon thy strength to lean,
And when the day is done may I be clean
Because I have been trusting thee.
O Lord, grant that today I may disdain
No humble task; that I may not complain,
However hard my lot. Help me to do
The things that I should do, faithful and true
To every trust; and when the day is done
I will recount thy mercies, one by one,
When death, O Lord, shall beckon me away,
Grant that I may see the light of heaven's day
Because I have been loving thee.

W. A. BRADEN AND WIFE VISIT GOLD CAMPS IN MOUNTAINS NEAR STOCKTON

Longing for the free ranch life and nearness to the gold camp where her husband passed away two years ago, Mrs. Ellen Birney recently sold her comfortable home at 920 North Louise and decided to go back to her ranch near Angel Camp, seventy-two miles northeast of Stockton. As to transport her household goods by freight would require shipment over three railway lines, two of them privately owned and with tariff schedules far in excess of what corporation owned lines would dare charge, she decided to send them through by truck. W. A. Braden of East Harvard was employed for the job and his wife chose to accompany him on the more than 800-mile auto trip. The going was good on the paved highways to Stockton, but the thirty miles from there to Oakdale was pretty rough and the remaining forty-three miles to Angel Camp took twelve hours as the road wound around and up mountainsides all the way. Destination was reached safely, however, and the household goods unloaded. Mr. and Mrs. Braden had to spend the night in Angel Camp and it was quite an experience. There are 185 gold mines in the encircling mountains, all of which were being worked not so long since, Mr. Braden was told, but not so now. A very rich new ledge has recently been discovered and it is yielding a great deal of ore. Labor is very hard to get and Mr. Braden was offered $12 a day for seven days in the week to act as conductor and brakeman on the train which runs down fourteen miles to the next town every morning, remains there all day and returns in the evening, but he had to decline.

The round trip was made in eight days without any mishap.

GLENDALE

Romance has attended this fair section of the South since the long-ago, that happy, care-free era of California's history when the site of our now thriving city was a part of the big land grant given by the king of Spain to the Verdugo family, up to this day when many who are living in less-favored sections of the country are turning their eyes Glendaleward and planning and longing to make their homes in this garden spot, the city that has made the largest per cent of growth of any municipality in the land, with no industrial incentive, its great attraction being its right to the title, "City of Homes."

Believing that many of you who are our guests this week will consider becoming residents of Glendale we offer these few facts that we think will be of interest to you.

Glendale is especially favored as to location. Her charming setting in the foothills with the higher ranges of mountains rising above is often commented upon. Her proximity to Los Angeles, being distant only a half hour's ride by trolley is an advantage that is not to be overlooked. Two main boulevards lead from the larger city and another and shorter road is now being paved. Glendale's altitude of 600 feet; her clear air and delightful climate tempered by breezes from the Pacific that find access through the Ivanhoe Pass; her proximity to the beaches and mountains are all features that add to the delight of living here.

Glendale's municipal government is organized with special reference to the needs of a rapidly-growing city. There are branches to care for any problem that might arise in such a city, all under the care of a City Manager, acting under the direction of the Board of Trustees. There is a department of public utilities, a department for the improvement and maintenance of streets, a health department that is watchful of sanitary and health conditions, well-organized police and fire departments, and a forestry department devoted to the propagation of trees for parkway planting, and to the care of trees already growing in parkways.

Living costs in Southern California are lower than elsewhere in the United States according to those who come here from other sections. Glendale enjoys this natural advantage along with her sister cities and in addition she has the distinction of furnishing electricity and water at a lower rate than any other city in California. This is due to the fact that the municipality several years ago purchased these utilities and organized a department of public service which has been conducted in a way to give the people the best possible service at the lowest possible rate consistent with good business. The people have never been taxed for the purchase of these utilities, the department being managed in such a way that it has been able to pay off all indebtedness as it became due.

Glendale's growth has astonished even her own people. Twenty years ago Glendale was not an incorporated city and hence does not appear in the census figures of that year, but those who lived here then say the population could not have been more than a few hundred. In 1910 the census report gives Glendale a population of 2742 and in 1920, 13,536, an increase of 393 per cent. Making an estimate from the registration of voters we know that Glendale's population today is in the neighborhood of 20,000. From the water and light connections that are being made it has been determined that the population is increasing at the rate of 5000 a year and figuring on the basis of a population of 20,000 this means an increase of 25 per cent a year.

In July of this year Glendale was sixth among California cities in the value of building permits issued, the order being Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Long Beach, Pasadena, Glendale, Pasadena's lead over Glendale being less than $33,000. Glendale's figure was $302,970 giving her the proud record of doing more building in proportion to her population than any city in the United States. In August of this year Glendale's building permits totalled $515,078 and during the first fifteen days of September permits amounted to $260,785. The total building in Glendale since the close of the war or from January 1, 1919 to September 15, 1920, totals $2,680,633.

Glendale is known everywhere as a clean town, her broad paved streets being the marvel of all visitors. Brand Boulevard, a paved street 120 feet in width extends through the center of the city from the mountains to the city limits of Los Angeles, a distance of 2.9 miles. Being jealous of the reputation of the city, Glendale people very generally keep their premises in neat condition. When lot owners are non-resident or for any other reason are careless in this respect the city looks after cleaning the weeds from the property.

In educational progress our city is not backward. A fine high school, ten grade schools in various sections of the city, and a church school take care of the needs of the young, while two city libraries are well patronized. Glendale has one of the largest woman's clubs in the state and other clubs, lodges and fraternal organizations thrive here. Two splendid new hospital buildings are now in course of construction.

Glendale is a clean city, morally. It is essentially a church town, nearly all denominations being represented. There has always been a determined effort on the part of the people as a whole to exclude anything that would tend to lower the moral tone of the community.

We welcome you, visitors to the Tractor Show and invite you to become residents of Glendale. If that is impossible, at least come again.

The Tractor Show Is Disarranging the Family Routine This Week

Everyone in Glendale is more or less interested in the big tractor show and is doing his or her part to make it a success, to show off our city to the best advantage. A week like this makes Mother realize that the family washing is a great bugbear when it is done at home, so she sensibly decides to begin at once to send the weekly bundle to the Glendale Laundry or rather she calls the Glendale Laundry by phone and asks one of the wagons to call for her bundle.

Why don't you try it?

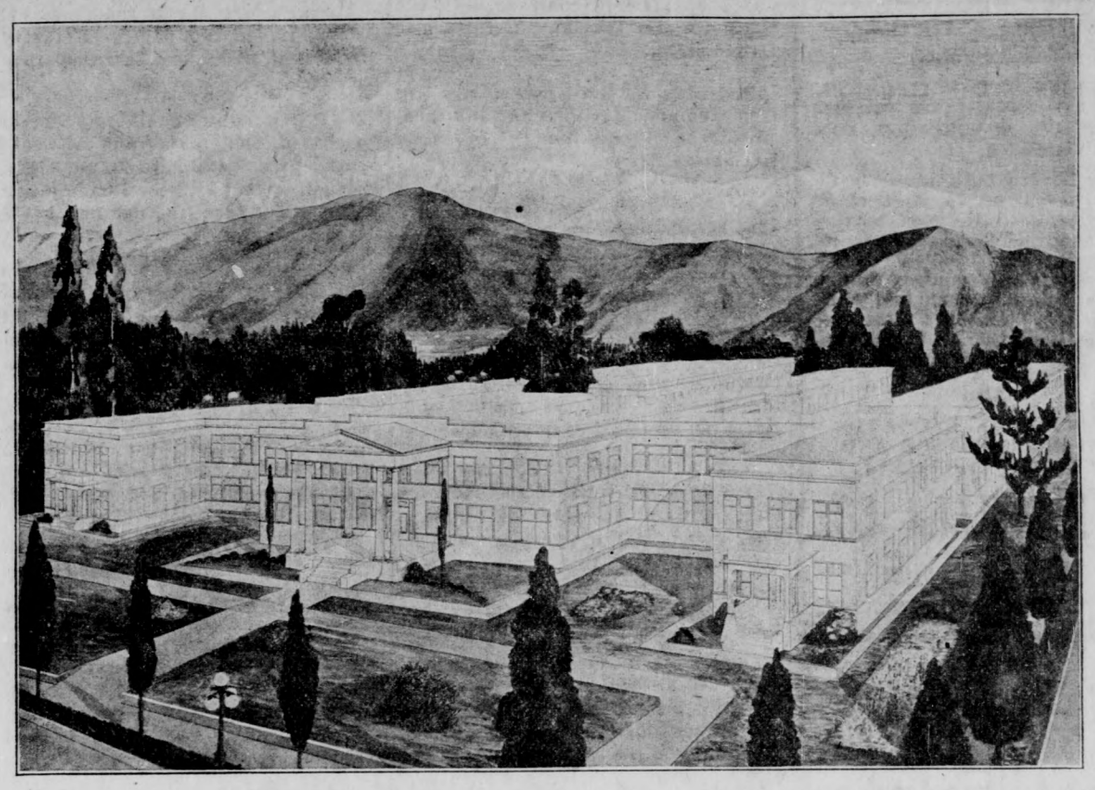
No matter how homely he may be, every wife has the idea that some other woman is trying to vamp her husband.

The Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital

Here in Glendale, in one of the loveliest and most fertile valleys of the South, in the shadow of the everlasting hills, stands the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital where the suffering find health; where the tired or depressed business man or woman comes for a "rest-vacation" and goes away refreshed and strengthened and with increased efficiency and new ambition; and where the well are taught how to keep well.

Knowing that environment plays a large part in the treatment of disease we have provided here a comfortable retreat for the ailing in a quiet, restful, optimistic atmosphere, in surroundings that are comfortable and interesting.

The value of spending a few weeks under such conditions can only be estimated by those who have been restored, who have experienced sound, refreshing sleep after nights of sleeplessness, who know the satisfaction of a good digestion, a clear head, increased energy and that sense of mental and physical buoyancy that makes life worth while—in other words those who have been restored to sound health which means the perfect functioning of every organ of the body and makes living a joy and brings efficiency, usefulness and happiness.



NEW BUILDING OF THE GLENDALE SANITARIUM AND HOSPITAL, THE FIRST UNIT OF WHICH IS NOW BEING CONSTRUCTED

PRESENT BUILDING AND GROUNDS OF GLENDALE SANITARIUM AND HOSPITAL

This institution is founded on the principle that nature alone can cure; that health, like disease, must come gradually by a process of growth and change; that at all times the body is working to maintain health and strength and when pain or disorder appears the proper functioning of the body is being prevented. This we correct and so put the body in a position to heal itself.

Are you tired, ill or sorrowing? Would you come here for treatment or rest? Your case will be given individual attention and nature's own aids to health, air, water, light, heat, electricity and a proper diet will be used to restore you.

Our Dining Room

is open to the public. It is conducted on the European plan and is appreciated by many who like a good, wholesome, vegetarian diet.

The formal opening of Occidental College took place this morning at 10 o'clock. The speaker of the occasion was Dr. James A. Simcis. Davis B. Gamble, President of the Board of Trustees, was present. The opening prayer was by Dr. W. S. Young.

A student rally preceded the formal opening, over 200 students taking part. The enrollment this year far exceeds all past records.

Look at the roads for twenty miles around on a Sunday

THERE isn't any "country" any more. The automobile has brought the most remote settlement almost as close to the center of things as the next county was in the old days.

II

To hear some tire dealers talk you might think that nobody knew anything about tires except the fellow from Broadway.

That's not the basis we go on.

We give every man credit for knowing what he is spending his money on, whether he drives up here in his small car from ten miles out in the country or is passing through from the capital in his limousine.

III

That's one thing we like about U. S. Tires.

They make no distinction between the small car owner and the owner of the biggest car in the country.

It's all the same to them. So long as a man owns an automobile — large or small — he's entitled to the very best tire they can give him.

Quality has always been the outstanding feature of U. S. Tires. There's no limit on the U. S. guarantee. All U. S. Tires are guaranteed for the life of the tire.

IV

We have given a lot of thought to this tire proposition. There is some advantage in being the representatives of the oldest and largest rubber concern in the world.

Drop in the next time you're down this way and let us tell you some interesting facts about tires.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

For best results—everywhere—U. S. Royal Cords.

It is all right for food faddists to ask folks to live on nuts, but it is quite another thing to ask them to live with them.

When one observes the efforts of some persons to see things he is convinced that all the rubber is not going into tires.

OLGA STEEB

Celebrated Pianiste

Appears in a special invitational recital for the students of the Glendale High School and their friends and relatives

Under Auspices of the Fitzgerald Music Co.

Miss Steeb will play in person with all the brilliant musicianship for which she is internationally famous.

And then the audience will witness the seeming miracle of Miss Steeb continuing to play without touching her fingers to the keys of the piano. She will play through her other self—the KNABE AMPICO Reproducing Piano—which will continue her renditions with such absolute precision of touch, tone and expression that all previous comparisons have proved that no one can tell Miss Steeb's personal playing from the Knabe Ampico reproductions.

Legion Considers Japs

HONOLULU, Sept. 8. (By Mail to United Press.)—Whether Japanese born in Hawaii may be allowed membership in the American Legion is one of the points to be brought up at the national convention of the legion to be held in Cleveland September 27-29. Honolulu Post No. 1 is considering including these Japanese in its organization.

National headquarters has informed the local post that the plan involves serious consideration, however, and no decision will be made until after the convention.

Anti-Jap Agitation

HONOLULU, Sept. 8. (By Mail to United Press.)—"Japan does not claim the right to send her people from Japan, nor will she try to push that policy," was the assertion of Dr. Tasuku Harada, newly appointed professor of Japanese history and literature in the University of Hawaii.

"What Japan does want is protection for her people who may already be in another land," he declared.

Dr. Harada recently arrived here from Japan after traveling in the United States and Europe for the past year. He plans to return to the mainland after the university season is over, in an effort to counteract anti-Japanese agitation in California.

The palace built by Louis XIV at Versailles cost so much that he destroyed his accounts.

When the dispatches mention the Tanca-Arica dispute between Peru and Chile it sounds like some Indian cure-all.

Nobody claims that the grocer and butcher contribute anything to the sentiment of married life.
